Department of Botany

Debate Competition at Department of Botany

The Department of Botany organized a Debate Competition on “Organic Farming vs. use of synthetic chemicals in agriculture” on 17th December 2018 for the students of F.Y. B.Sc. Botany.

The topic was selected from a unit of the syllabus, to create awareness among students regarding the use of chemicals in large amounts in agriculture and also propagate the concept of organic farming which is the need of the hour.

Students were informed to gather data from articles in newspapers, research articles on the internet, books on agricultural practices, etc. Thus, participants put forth information in the form of a healthy debate in classroom.

The audience enjoyed the way participants expressed their views and also took notes. The activity proved to be an innovative tool in enhancing classroom teaching-learning process.
