DISASTER MANAGEMENT TRAINING WORKSHOP

25th & 26th February 2017

A training workshop on “Disaster Management” was jointly organized by Board of Students’ Welfare, Savitribai Phule Pune University and AKI’s Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Camp, Pune on the 25th and 26th of February, 2017 at the Conference Hall and Campus. This was conducted to spread awareness among the young students about disasters that occur all of a sudden, mitigation methods and also how to prevent them.

The program was inaugurated on the 25th at the hands of Dr. Aftab Anwar Shaikh, Vice Principal, (Commerce), AKI’s Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, after Tilaawat-e-Quran by Mr. Navid Sayyad, student of M.A (English). In the first session, Dr. M.R.G. Sayyad, Head, Dept. of Geology, gave a detail account on the various disasters, their types and effects on human life and property through a power point presentation.

This was followed by a lecture cum demonstration on Emergency Ambulance Services provided by “108” and first aid given till these services arrive. Students were taught how to take care of accident cases, stroke patients, etc. and provide first aid so as to facilitate their movement to the hospital by the emergency services. After a lunch break in the second session Dr. Vanita Lombar, Resident Medical Officer, Sassoon Hospital, Pune, spoke in detail on various first aid measures to be taken after a disaster. She too gave demonstrations on how to make the patient comfortable till emergency services arrive.

This was followed by a film show on “Disaster Management” by Dr. Sajid Hundekari, Dept. of Geology. The programme was compered by Dr. Bhavana Deshpande. It ended with vote of thanks by Dr. Baba Shaikh.

On 26th February, the second day of the workshop, Mr. Mayuresh Jadhav, an N.S.S. Volunteer, showed ways of evacuation, escaping fires, rescuing people in floods, etc. After this, Mr. Sameer Shaikh, Station Officer, Fire Brigade, Pune, explained types of fires, their causes, ways of controlling them, common mistakes and how to avoid them through power point presentation. Later on, along with his fire fighting team, a demonstration on the use of different fire extinguishers was given. Students learnt handling and actual use of these extinguishers. The fire brigade machine was operated to show how it is used to put off fires. This was followed by a lunch break. In the post lunch session, another film show was arranged by Dr. Baba Shaikh on “Mitigation Methods”. After this, an interactive group discussion was conducted for students where they cleared their doubts, and shared experiences.

The valedictory function marked the end of the workshop where students were given certificate of participation. Some spoke on what they learnt in the two days. Mr. Arbaaz Shaikh, a student from Earn and Learn Scheme, Mr. Mustafa Shaikh, an NSS Volunteer, Mr. B. Vimalnath, an NCC cadet, miss Kavita Sakhre, SY BSC student, Mr. Prateek Pandey, NCC cadet spoke enthusiastically with gratitude on how the workshop had inculcated awareness on disasters and ignited feelings of service to mankind. The programme was compered by Dr. Aafreen A. Ahmed.

The workshop was a great success thanks to the guidance and support of Dr. Rafique Sarkhawas, Principal, AKI’s Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mr. Mohammad Shakir Shaikh, Students’ Welfare Officer, members of Board of Students’ Welfare: Dr. Bhavana Deshpande, Dr. Baba Shaikh, Dr. Aafreen A. Ahmed, Mr. Mukhtar Shaikh and of course the interactive gathering of students.

DETAILED REPORT

In compliance with the initiative taken by the Government of Maharashtra State to plant 2 Crore Trees in a day, the Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce situated at the heart of Pune city organized 'Tree Plantation Drive' by planting 20 assorted seedlings in its premises by the hands of the Principal of the college Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas in the presence of the Registrar, Vice Principals of Arts, Commerce and Science faculty. The teachers, students and supporting crew consisting of NSS volunteers, NCC cadets and non-teaching staff were also present during the programme. The drive was funded by the College Management who pledged to bear the cost of yearlong nurturing of the trees planted.

A six-member Committee was formed by the Principal of the college on 20th of June 2016 which surveyed the whole campus, identified the suitable site and supervised the work of NSS Volunteers, NCC Cadets and supporting staff digging pits for tree-plantation. Later on, the Committee visited a nursery and, in consultation with the Registrar Mr. Salim Shaikh, bought seedlings, soil and fertilizer in the evening on 30th of June 2016. The details are annexed (annexure 2) with this report.

On 1st of July 2016 at 08:30 O' Clock in the morning, the college campus was brimming with the enthusiasm of the congregated staff and students for the Tree Plantation Programme. The programme commenced with the Recitation of Verses from the Holy Quran by Mr. Javed Akhtar, a faculty from the Department of Urdu, Persian and Arabic. Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas greeted the standing audience in the Open Auditorium of the college and stressed the importance of tree plantation to save the environment by protecting and preserving ecological balance. The onus of guarding the plants was shouldered on NSS volunteers and NCC Cadets who will take care of plants under the supervision of the Committee. He announced a healthy competition between NSS volunteers and NCC cadets which will evaluate them on the basis of the care they will take of plants. A surprise-reward will be awaiting the Best Guardian Group.

Dr. Shakir Shaikh compered the session and Dr. Sajid Hundekar proposed vote of thanks. The programme came to close after successful tree plantation under the able guidance of Dr. Rafique Shaikh, an Assistant Professor from the Department of Botany.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (Academic Year 2016 – 2017)

DESCRIPTIVE REPORT ON ORIENTATION PROGRAMME

Organized by

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME CELL
POONA COLLEGE OF ARTS, SCIENCE & COMMERCE
CAMP, PUNE – 411 001

Objective:

- ✓ To inculcate in the minds of students newly enrolled in NSS an approach prerequisite for social service
- ✓ To make the NSS volunteers well acquainted with 'safety' of the masses they live with and 'safaaayi' of the places they live in

Beneficiaries:

- ✓ The delegates included all the NSS volunteers and NSS Committee Members amounted to 205

Inaugural Address:

- ✓ The programme, which was organized under the chaperonage of Mr. Zameer Sayyed, NSS Programme Officer and Mrs. Swaleha Mulla, Lady Programme Officer, commenced with the recitation of verses from the Holy Quran followed by University Song sung in chorus by NSS volunteers. Then was sung in exact fervour the NSS Song by them. Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas delivered inaugural address in which he applauded the NSS team for their success in MIT College Campus, Kothrud. "Our NSS team participated in One Day Conference on The Real Teachings of Islam and Intemational Terrorism organized in and by MIT College. Our volunteers did well there", he exclaimed happily. He mentioned gleefully that he was quite happy to see the NSS volunteers actively participating in the organization and conduction of the programme faultlessly.

Keynote Address:

Dr. Shivaji Pacharane and Dr. Savita Kulkarni, the Pune District Coordinators, NSS, SP Pune University were invited as Resource Persons of the programme. In his keynote address, Dr. Shivaji Pacharane congratulated the gathering for being 'special' and 'chosen' people. "You are in NSS and that's what separates you from the rest of the college students. It is because you need to have time and heart for the sake of others", thus he inculcated the first and foremost sense in the minds of the volunteers which springs from motto of NSS 'Not me but you'. He further exemplified the pivotal role NSS performs in one's life. "It teaches Management, Mathematics and the life-values", he was saying.

Dr. Savita Kulkarni shared her experience with the gathering about her journey in National Service Scheme from apprentice to mentor. Her journey made almost all the girl-volunteers to venture fervently with NSS in order to be (and bring about) the Change they want to see in the community they are living with, in the society they are part of and in the nation they depend on.

The address was complimented with the NSS style Clap. The programme was compered by Miss. Nimra Momin, an NSS Volunteer from FYBA class who kept the atmosphere livelier till the end by her four-liner didactic shayaris. Mr. Shadab Mededar, an NSS Volunteer studying in SYBSc, proposed vote of thanks. The programme concluded with National Anthem and then the session was kept open for interaction with the guests.

The National Service Scheme Cell, Anjuman Khairul Islam's Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Camp, Pune came to the fore with 'compassion in heart and passion in belly' to discharge a moral responsibility, stemming from the sense of belonging to the nation, of giving back to society. This time was an opportunity to render social service during the ten-day Ganesh festival which had commenced on 05th of September and concluded on 15th of September 2016. 30 NSS volunteers deputed to aid Lashkar Police Station, Pune in maintaining law and order kept a constant vigil during heavy crowding at Bhopla Chowk Ganesh Mandal from 06:00pm onwards every day.

Sporting red T-shirts provided by the authorities as a mark of identification, the volunteers who joined hands with the 'men in uniform' to monitor surging crowds turning out every day to enjoy tableaux at the Ganesh pandal, went about their assigned duties with a youthful exuberance keeping a watchful eye on suspicious objects as well as on eve teasers.

Under the able guidance of the Principal Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas, this initiative was undertaken by the Vice Principal Dr. Aftab Anwar. Prof. Zameer S. Sayyed, NSS Programme Officer, was entrusted to depute the volunteers. Mr. Mayuresh Jadhav and Mr. Arman Shaikh, students of the college, led the squad generating a message of Sarvadharmasambhav. Mr. Jalaluddin Shaikh, a non-teaching faculty of the college, was also on the field during these days to look after the volunteers in all the possible ways. The confluence of volunteers joining hands, irrespective of any discriminatory consideration based on class, caste and religion, did not fail to exert a very strong influence on the minds of the surging crowd. Pune: The National Service Scheme (NSS) Cell of Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce organised an awareness Rally on 'Saaf-suthari Bakri Eid' on Saturday.

The purpose was to sensitise the masses about the clean, healthy and hygienic celebration of Eid-al-Adha (Bakri Eid).

Assistant Commissioner Police Ravindra Rasal, who inaugurated the rally, appreciated the initiative and efforts of the college for the task of disciplining the forthcoming Eid celebration. Hanif Lakadawala, Trustee, Anjuman Khair-ul Islam, Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, was instrumental in conceptualising this programme. Mirza Salat Baig, AKI Trustee, Principal M Rafique Sarkhawas and Vice Principals Shakeel Ahmed and Aftab Anwar were present on the occasion.

The rally was held at Kondhwa Khurd, Pune, which marched under the chaperonage of Zameer S Sayyed, NSS Programme Officer; Gulab Pathan and Swaleha Mulla, NSS (Lady) Programme Officer. The rally route included Meetha Nagar lane, Nawazish Park, Valley School, Saibaba Nagar encircling Sheetal Petrol Pump to Konark Mall.

The participants - NSS volunteers and NCC Cadets - were sloganeering during the procession. Vakil Sayyed and Akbar Sayyed, teaching faculty members involved in NSS, contributed to make the rally a success.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (Academic Year 2016 – 2017)

DESCRIPTIVE REPORT ON SAAF SUTHRI BAKR EID AWARENESS MEGA RALLY

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Cell, Poona College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Camp, Pune, organized a Mega Awareness Rally on 'Saaf-suthari Bakr Eid' on 10th September, 2016. With 'Bakri Eid Celebration' approaching, many muslims sacrifice animals as a form of qurbani. This annual tradition is practiced in many ways, with most of the people preferring to perform the ritual themselves. Although this practice is the best practice, lack of a little concern to hygiene and that of regulatory measures leads sometimes to unethical practices, improper cleanliness and unsafe disposal of animal waste.

The purpose was to sensitize the awareness among the masses about the clean, healthy and hygienic celebration of Eid-al-Adha (Baqri Eid). So, by this, to ensure that we keep our surrounding orderly and initiate a proper waste disposal.

Assistant Commissioner Police Ravindra Rasal inaugurated the rally who appreciated the initiative and efforts of the college for the task of disciplining the forthcoming Eid celebration. Dr. Hanif Lakadawala, Trustee, Anjuman Khairul Islam, Poona College of Arts, Science & Commerce, Camp, Pune was instrumental in conceptualizing this altruistic endeavor. Mr. Mirza Salat Baig, AKI Trustee, Principal Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas and Vice Principals Dr. Shakeel Ahmed and Dr. Aftab Anwar were present on the occasion.

The rally was held at Kondhwa Khurd, Pune under the chaperonage of Mr. Zameer S. Sayyed, NSS Programme Officer, Dr. Gulab Pathan and Mrs. Swaleha Mulla, NSS (Lady) Programme Officer. Mr. Vakil Sayyed and Mr. Akbar Sayyed, teaching faculty members involved in NSS, made significant contribution to make the rally a grand success.

All the participants – NSS volunteers and NCC Cadets –were sloganeering during the procession crying out vociferously the two liner 'Mera Shahr Saaf ho, Isme Hamara Haath ho', 'Paaki aadhaa Imaan hai, Yehi Hamara Paigaam Hai', 'Clean & Green, is Our Dream', 'God gave us Green, Let us Keep it Clean', 'Don't be Bitter, Stop this Litter' etc.

The rally exerted a very strong influence on the minds of the bystanders - some appreciated the initiative, some found it very innovative, some nodded and whispered the need of such a message in the context of unsightly, and stressful smell of, blood in the streets post-Eid. The rally and sloganeering achieved its purpose by making people muse over social responsibility while fulfilling religious duty. After all, compassion and consideration for oneself and for others are one of Islam's most important teachings.

Assistant Commissioner Police Ravindra Rasal who inaugurated the rally being felicitated by Mr. Mirza Salat Baig, AKI Trustee in presence of Principal Dr. M. Rafique Sarkhawas and Vice Principal Dr. Aftab Anwar Shaikh and NSS Programme Officers Mr. Zameer Salim Sayyed & Ms. Swaleha Mulla (10/09/2016)

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME (Academic Year 2016 – 2017)

DESCRIPTIVE REPORT ON NSS FOUNDATION DAY CELEBRATION

The objective behind this programme was not only to orient the NSS volunteers to the history behind the establishment of NSS Cell in an educational institute but also to make the attendees realize that NSS offers a career in a field 'less travelled by' – a kind of respect, recognition and rapport in the field of social service for the career-oriented volunteers.

The main attraction of the programme was Mr. Pravin Sanjay Nikam, a 23-year-old Pimpri-based social activist and a recipient of National Youth Awardee at the hands of Prime Minister of India Honourable Shri Narendraji Modi. An engineer drop-out Mr. Pravin who strives to provide education to children and improve health conditions of teenage girls and women is fondly known as 'Period Man'. The faculty members who had in the past served as 'NSS Officers' were also invited and felicitated for their dedicated service on the occasion. The NSS volunteers expressed a sense of gratitude for them in the NSS style of clapping. On this auspicious occasion, two-minute silence was also observed as a tribute to the soldiers martyred in Uri attack.
