Report on “Annual Orientation Programme” Date: 14/09/19

Today, Mr. Jawwad Kazi talk on all kind of competitive examinations and everyone wants to protect their future as life is full of uncertainties. Most people want to get settled in their life by having a steady flow of income and growth at regular intervals of time. Though the mushrooming private sector has opened up new prospects of a bright future for today's youth, job insecurity still hangs 24x7. Due to this, we have to work hard as we all know that private firms demand long working hours. At certain point of life, many of us start acknowledging this realm of life and get going with the same job in private sector.

Mr. Kazi focused on how many people who act smart and opt for government jobs. It has never been a secret that government jobs have fixed working hours and moreover plenty of facilities and flexibility offered to its employees. Being the world's seventh largest country, India comprises of 29 states, which jointly offers plethora of government jobs. Every year, different civil service examinations are conducted. Of all these exams, some are held at state level whereas some at national level. In state level service exams, MPSC exam is one of the premier civil services exams in India.

As per the explanation of guest, MPSC stands for Maharashtra Public Service Commission. Formed by the Constitution of India, MPSC is a body that selects candidates for civil service jobs in the State of Maharashtra. Every year, the Government of Maharashtra conducts MPSC exam through which it selects eligible candidates for jobs under its various departments like Administration, Police, Forest and Engineering.

Annually, MPSC conducts about 15 examinations for Class I, II and III officers in various government services. Students are responsive and ask questions in between the discussion of the lecture.

Report on “Guidance Talk for MPSC Entrance Examination”

Date: 30/12/19

Mr. Jawwad Kazi talk on public service commission is a stepping stone to a life of privilege and status. Against the backdrop of India's huge and burgeoning population, this is an avenue that offers an instant entry to a life of respectability and success. No surprise, for the 2000 vacancies, there are six lakh aspirants annually, of which more than a lakh are from Pune alone. With all its coaching classes, study rooms and libraries, Pune is a thriving hub for MPSC aspirants

Mr. Jawwad Kazi was streets, on legion of students who nurture in their hearts and minds dreams of a sparkling tomorrow, and bright horizons with infinite possibilities. Pune has constantly evolved and redefined itself as a quality centre of education. The city is home to India's first school for girls that was set up in 1848, and is renowned as the 'Oxford of the East', with its nine universities and over a 100 educational institutions. But Pune is also home to countless young Maharashtra Public Service Commission (MPSC) aspirants.

Overall, almost six lakh students every year on and average submit MPSC forms, out of which over one lakh forms are from Pune district alone, the highest in Maharashtra. Pune has more than 15 private coaching classes and over a 100 study rooms and libraries.
