DESCRIPTIVE REPORT

A Group Discussion Activity on the topic of 'Anti-ragging and its Effects' was organized at Vidyavani Community Radio (FM 107.4 MHz), Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune on 11th August, 2023 under the banner of Women's Forum.

The activity was the brainchild of Prof. (Dr.) Aftab Anwar Shaikh, Principal, Poona College, and the purpose was, as was stated by Dr. Ashwini Daware, the Coordinator of the activity, "to raise awareness about the importance of eradicating ragging and fostering a safe and inclusive environment within educational institutions in particular, and workplaces, and public-places in general."

A team of seven students from FYBA, F Y B.Com and TYBA were welcomed by Dr. Mahesh Jagtap, the Coordinator of the Radio Station at SPPU, where the students shared their definitions and perceptions of ragging, highlighted the negative impact of ragging on students' mental and emotional well-being, and deliberated on the legal and ethical implications of ragging, citing relevant laws and regulations that prohibit such practices, while placing an emphasis on the need for strict enforcement of anti-ragging policies.

The discussion later delved into the lasting impact of ragging on victims, both academically and psychologically. Miss. Safura Patel and Miss. Qurratulain Shaikh from TYBA, Miss. Maryam, Miss. Afnan, Miss. Nausheen, Mr. Mansoor Ali from FYBA, and Mr. Kishan Kumar from F Y B.Com not only explored how ragging can perpetuate a toxic campus culture and hinder students' overall growth but also discussed the need for students, faculty and educational institutions to come to the fore strategically and stand up against ragging and create a safe reporting mechanism.

The group discussion will be aired soon by the radio station and the opinions of our Poona College students will be heard outside the campus, leaving a huge impact on listeners, as *Dr. Mahesh Jagtap, during post-radio session, appreciated the content and rigour our students brought to the table.
